The School Administrator,
School of Celtic Studies,
Dublin Institute for Advanced Studies,
10 Burlington Road,
Dublin 4,
IRELAND.

To be returned not later than 15 May.

The form should be accompanied by:

- (a) Copies of any work of research (published or otherwise) carried out by the Candidate either independently or in collaboration with others and/or reference to any such published work.
- (b) Such other evidence as the Candidate may wish to submit in proof of his/her ability to carry out original research.
- (c) Particulars of the Candidate's knowledge of Celtic and other languages according to the following graduation: (a) mother tongue; (b) complete mastery in reading, listening and speaking; (c) mastery in reading and listening; (d) elementary knowledge.
- (d) Particulars of any scholarship or educational grant of which the Candidate may be in receipt during all, or part of, the period of the proposed Scholarship.

N.B. The Candidate should request at least two referees, who are qualified to testify as to his/her ability to carry out original research, to send testimonials as soon as possible direct to the Registrar at the above address. (It is not the practice of the School to approach named referees directly for references).

Candidates should note that applications not supported by the required testimonials will not be considered as complete, and accordingly, will not be eligible for consideration by the Governing Board of the School.
